

Resources for Veterans affected by the Coronavirus (COVID-19)

The California Department of Veterans' Affairs \(CalVet\) and the United States Departments of Veterans' Affairs dedicate themselves to serving all veterans by connecting them and their families with their earned benefits through education, advocacy and services. Both departments have compiled helpful information about the COVID-19 pandemic for veterans and their families who are suffering from the virus.

During this difficult time I wanted to make sure you were aware of these programs and resources:

Coronavirus FAQs – What veterans' need to know

Blog with multiple resources for COVID-19:

COVID-19 Resources for Veterans

Subscribe to Veterans Resources Email for updates

US Department of Veterans' Affairs/ Public Health

California Veterans' Resource Book

Finding a County Veterans' Services Officer \(CVSO\)

Other Veterans' Organizations and Resources

DAV.org

Military One

VA Suicide Prevention Hotline/"Veterans Chat" \(800\) 273-TALK or \(800\) 273-8255,

Additional information for veterans and on Coronavirus resources can be found on my website. My office is open and available to help you with this or any other state matter. I hope your friends, family and loved ones remain healthy.

Scott

